1960s

1962 Martha Bernal is the First Latina to earn a PhD in psychology
1963 Betty Friedan’s The Feminine Mystique
1964 November 22nd John F. Kennedy assassinated.
1966 National Organization for Women is founded

1968 Association of Black Psychologists is founded
April 4th Martin Luther King Jr. assassinated.
1969 At the annual APA convention, collective feminist action shuts down the booths of employers with sex-discriminatory advertisements

Formation of the Association for Women in Psychology
JoAnn Evans Gardner is first (temporary) President

1970s

1970 Phyllis Chesler and Nancy Henley present the Demand for Reparations at the APA Town Hall Meeting in Miami.

Association por La Raza is formed. Edward Casavantes is guiding force.
Task Force on the Status of Women in Psychology is formed.
Helen Astin is appointed chair.

Boston Women’s Health Collective publishes first edition of Our Bodies, Ourselves.

1971 Network of Indian Psychologists is formed by Carolyn Attneave.

1972 Anne Anastasi is 3rd female president of the APA after a 50-year gap.
Asian American Psychological Association is founded.

1973
Division 35 is established as a result of one of the recommendations of the Task Force on the Status of Women. Elizabeth Douvan is the first president.

Committee on Women in Psychology is formed. Martha Mednick is the first chair.

Landmark legal decision Roe v. Wade makes abortion legal in the United States.

1974 Committee on Research Guidelines is formed. Ethel Tobach is first chair.

APA Task Force on Sex Bias and Sex Role Stereotyping in Psychotherapeutic Practice is formed.

1975 Georgia Babadellis named first editor of Psychology of Women Quarterly.

Annual Review of Psychology published first review chapter on psychology of women.

1976 First issue of Psychology of Women Quarterly appears.

Division 35 Task Force on Black Women’s Concerns appointed. Carolyn Payton, Saundra Rice Murray, Gwendolyn Puryear, and Winnie Emoungo first members.

1977 Task Force on the Concerns of Hispanic Women is formed. Martha Bernal is the first chair.
Women’s Programs Office established. Nancy Felipe Russo named first Director.

APA Ethics Code changed to prohibit sexual contact between therapists and clients.

1978 Gloria Steinem presents an invited address at the APA convention in Toronto.
Pamela Trotman Reid is first president of the Committee on Black Women’s Concerns.

1980s

1980 Florence L. Denmark is the 5th woman to be elected president of the APA
1982 First meeting of the Feminist Therapy Institute
1984 Florence Denmark, Carolyn Payton, and Laurie Eyde receive the first APA Committee on Women in Psychology Leadership Awards.
1985 Division 44, Society for the Psychological Study of Lesbian, Gay, and Bisexual issues is formed
1986 Task Force on Nonsexist Research
1987 Bonnie R. Strickland is the 7th woman to be elected president of the APA
1988 Task Force on Feminist Research and Epistemology & the Teaching the Psychology of Women Institute are established

1990s

1990-1992 Task Force on Cultural Diversity in Feminist Psychology, chaired by Hope Landrine
1995 First book published in the Division 35 book series. Edited by Hope Landrine, it is titled Bringing Cultural Diversity to Feminist Psychology

Division 35 becomes the 4th largest division of the APA!!

21st Century

2000 Report of the APA Task Force on Women in Academe
2001 Norine Johnson is the 8th woman to be elected president of the APA
2004 Diane Halpern is the 9th woman to be elected president of the APA
2009 Report of the Task Force on Mental Health and Abortion

What might the FUTURE bring?