Division 37 Mission Statement

APA
2022
AUGUST 4-6

The Society for Child and Family Policy and Practice (Div. 37 of the American Psychological Association) is committed to the application of psychological knowledge to advocacy, social justice, service delivery and public policies affecting children, youth and families in a diverse and inclusive society. The society advances research, education, training and practice through a multidisciplinary and culturally informed perspective. The Society is interested in supporting culturally informed, evidence-based practice that promotes health equity with underserved and vulnerable populations.
