(what’s) the big idea(?):
get certified

The clearest and most responsible way for a psychologist to represent herself/himself to the public, third-parties, and the profession as a specialist is to be certified through an organized peer process as meeting the standards and demonstrating the competencies required in the specialty. ABPP is the only non-profit professional unitary organization with multiple specialty board quality controls recognized by the profession as certifying specialty practitioners in psychology.

checklist basics:
- a doctoral degree from an APA/CPA accredited or ASPPB/NR designated program
- licensure as a psychologist at the independent doctoral level
- APA/CPA accredited internship or equivalent year of supervised experience
