

SOCIETY FOR SPORT, EXERCISE
& PERFORMANCE PSYCHOLOGY

APA Division 47

Become an APA Division 47 Student Member!

The Mission of Division 47

Division 47 of APA is a professional organization whose members are engaged in the science and practice of psychology within sport, exercise, and human performance. Members of Division 47 develop, promote, and disseminate information to students, professionals, and the public related to:

1. Standards for competent and ethical practice
2. Models of graduate and postdoctoral training
3. Scientific knowledge that informs and guides practice

Reasons to Join Division 47 as a Student Member

- Interact with professionals in the fields of sport, exercise, and performance psychology and discuss topics and issues through social networks and the listserv:
  - Facebook (www.facebook.com/APADivision47)
  - Twitter (@APADivision47)
  - LinkedIn (APA Division 47)
  - Listserv (<http://www.apadivisions.org/division-47/about/email/index.aspx>)
- Get involved and serve as a student member on a Division 47 committee!
  - Cornerstone Committee
  - Membership Committee
  - Social Media Committee
- Receive the official journal: Sport, Exercise and Performance Psychology
- Apply for the Student Dissertation Award or the Student Thesis Award
- Engage in student-led initiatives, including webinars, Sport Psych Works (online newsletter publication), and Ray's Race at the annual APA convention

How to Join Division 47

- You can join Division 47 whether you are an APA student affiliate or not
- Student dues for Division 47 are only $20 per year
- Contact the current Division 47 student representatives for more ways to get involved: <http://www.apadivisions.org/division-47/leadership/committees/students.aspx>
- Visit the Membership page on our website to join: <http://www.apadivisions.org/division-47/membership/index.aspx>